

Executive Summary

This document outlines the company's Employee Handbook for fiscal year 2024. It covers all policies relating to employment, benefits, and code of conduct. All employees are required to read and acknowledge this handbook annually. The policies contained herein supersede all previous versions. Failure to comply with these policies may result in disciplinary action.

Section 1 ? Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to 20 days of annual leave per calendar year. Leave must be approved by the employee's line manager at least 14 days in advance. Unused leave may be carried forward up to a maximum of 5 days. Sick leave is granted separately and requires a medical certificate after 3 consecutive days. Maternity leave is 26 weeks, and paternity leave is 2 weeks, both fully paid.

Section 2 ? Remote Work Policy

Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week, subject to manager approval. Remote workers are expected to be available during core hours of 10:00 to 16:00. All remote work must be conducted on company-approved equipment with a VPN enabled. Home offices must comply with health and safety requirements outlined in Appendix B. Remote work privileges may be revoked if performance targets are not met.

Section 3 ? Code of Conduct

All employees must treat colleagues, clients, and partners with respect and professionalism. Harassment of any form, including verbal, physical, or digital, is strictly prohibited. Employees must not disclose confidential company information to external parties. Gifts and hospitality exceeding $50 in value must be declared to the compliance team. Violations of the code of conduct will be investigated and may result in termination.

Section 4.2 ? Termination and Resignation

Employees wishing to resign must submit a written notice to their line manager. The required notice period is 30 days for all permanent employees. Employees must provide a minimum of 30 days written notice before their last working day. The company reserves the right to place employees on garden leave during the notice period. All company property must be returned on or before the last working day.
